Numb. 7374.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday February 4 to Saturday February 8. 1734.

Hague, February 15, N. S.

M. De Catwyk returned hither from Friesland last Saturday, with the Prince of Orange's Grant to him of the Place of Drossard vacant at Breda. Mehemet Effendi is arrived here as Ambassadour from Tripoli, and delivered Yesterday his Credentials to the States. He has with him seven Barbary Horses to be presented to the Republick, one for each Province, for which the Deputies will cast Lots as usual. We have an Account that the Town of Schwerin has surrendred to the Besiegers, and that the Duke of Mecklenbourg having left the Defence of the Castle to his Commandant, had made his Escape, and was gone for Lubeck or Wismar.

Whitehall, Feb. 7, 1734-5.

Whereas on Wednesday the 29th Day of January last in the Evening, several Persons, armed with Cutlashes, Pistols, and large Oaken Sticks or Staves, violently entred the Dwelling House of John Dawes, in Wharton Court, in the Parish of St. Andrew Holbourn, an Officer of the Sheriff of Middlesex, and assaulted and wounded him and his Wife in several Parts of their Bodies, and very much bruised his Servant, and afterwards forcibly rescued out of his Hands James Ponder and John Harvey, two Prisoners for Debt, whom he had taken into Custody by proper Process at Law: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above-mentioned Facts, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the said Persons who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a further Encouragement, his Majesty is also pleased to promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds for every one of the Criminals who shall be discovered and apprehended as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders. And likewise the Sum of Fifty Pounds for the retaking and conveying each of them the said James Ponder and John Harvey to the County Goal where they shall be taken.

HARRINGTON.

Whitehall, February 8, 1734-5.

Whereas the Dwelling Houses of the several Persons following, viz. of Peter Splitt, at Woodford, Chandler and Grocer, of Mr. —— Eldridge, at Walthamstow, of Mrs. —— Shelley, Widow, at Lawton, of the Reverend Mr. —— Dyde, at Parndon, all in the County of Essex, were lately forced into, in the Night Time, and robbed of Money and other Things to a considerable Value: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the several Persons concerned in the abovementioned Robberies, or either of them, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the said Persons who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts, or either of them, so as he or they be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a farther Encouragement, his Majesty is also pleased to promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds for every one of the Criminals who shall be discovered and apprehended as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.
